

Commerce Public Library and the Education Commission invite you to a free film screening.

Friday
September 13, 2019
6:30 p.m.

The film will follow a brief presentation on services available in the city and the surrounding communities available to those experiencing homelessness or are at risk of becoming homeless.

Commerce Library
5655 Jillson St.
Commerce, CA 90040
323-722-6660

“The Public” written and directed by Emilio Estevez, tells a story of a librarian who helps out a group of homeless people who take refuge in a free public library in order to survive a brutal winter night. The story tackles some of our nation’s most challenging issues, homelessness and mental illness and sets the drama inside one of the last bastions of democracy-in-action: your public library.

Film will be screened in English with Spanish subtitles. For more information please call 323-722-6660 or visit www.cocpl.org

This project was made possible with support from California Humanities, a non-profit partner of the National Endowment for the Humanities. Visit www.calhum.org